

"INSURGENTS" AT THE WHITE HOUSE

Attempt to Force President to Show His Hand on House Rules Revision.

TARRIED MOST OF THE AFTERNOON.

Reports that Mr. Taft Intended to Work with House Organization in Interest of Speedily Getting Tariff Bill Through—President Diplomatically Sidestepped Announcing How He Stood—"Insurgent" Promises.

Washington, March 9.—President Taft was given an opportunity today to declare himself on the "insurgent" movement to revise the house rules. Diplomatically sidestepped, announcing how he stood, but in doing so he missed the opportunity of showing his hand. He was scheduled to attend in company with Mrs. Taft and their guests, Representative Gardner led insurgents.

Representative Paine of New York, chairman of the committee on ways and means, sought the support of Mr. Taft for the existing order of things, and the insurgents' cause was advocated by Representatives Gardner of Massachusetts, Mason of Kansas and Nelson of Wisconsin.

When the "insurgent" delegation to the executive offices consumed most of the afternoon, the three "insurgents" headed it charged the president. They intended to join hands with the house organization in the interest of getting the tariff bill through as soon as possible. Greatly disturbed by these reports, they hurried to the White house to urge Mr. Taft to take a soft line on the issue and leave the fighting to them. When they came out of the executive offices, Mr. Gardner declared, with an exhibition of confidence, that the "insurgents" were no longer in a compromising mood.

"We are firmly impressed that Mr. Taft is not opposed to a change of the rules," said Mr. Gardner, "but he is a little fearful that a contest now would cross the line and interfere with the passage of the tariff bill."

FIRST TAFT CABINET MEETING.

President Follows Predecessors in Having Them Keep Silence.

Washington, March 9.—President Taft's first cabinet meeting convened at 11 o'clock today. All the members of the new cabinet except Mr. Dickinson, who is expected to arrive tomorrow, were present. President Taft has determined not to permit the members of his cabinet to discuss the business transacted. The meeting today broke up at 12:45, when Secretary Knox announced Mr. Taft's ruling.

The president has decided to pursue the policy of his predecessors and do his own talking, said Secretary Knox. Secretaries Wright, Meyer, Nathan and Wilson confirmed this statement.

Previous to the meeting, Secretary Knox had a conference with Mr. Taft, and the president had time to receive the following callers: Governor Ide of the Philippine Islands, Senators Bradley of Kentucky, McCreary of West Virginia, Gamble, South Dakota; Carter, Montana; Clark, Wyoming; Representatives Martin of South Dakota, Dwight, New York; Representatives Richardson of Tennessee, and Kiser, Dover, secretary of the executive committee of the national association.

Chief Justice Fuller and members of the supreme court of the United States, former chief justice Melville, and the president at the White house today. The justices were received in the blue parlor.

THE POPE MUCH BETTER.

Resumes His Audiences in His Private Apartments.

Rome, March 9.—The pope, who has been suffering from a cold, is much better today. He had time to receive like weather has had a good effect on him. He has not yet been allowed to come down to the state apartments, but, as he insists upon resuming his audiences, he received today in his own private apartments. Cardinal Richelieu, archbishop of Turin, and Mr. Trube, bishop of St. Cloud, who came to Rome for the purpose. Both visitors expressed the hope that the pope looked comparatively well and vigorous considering the fact that he has been confined in his room for more than one week. The pope expressed the desire to descend soon to the throne room to receive Cardinal Mercier, archbishop of Mechelen, who is here with five Belgian bishops, and a Belgian pilgrimage.

OF INTEREST TO HUNTERS.

Number of Matters up Before Committee on Fish and Game.

Hartford, March 9.—There was a large attendance before the committee on fish and game, as there were a number of matters up for consideration. The committee was interested in the game wardens throughout the state. There were a number of bills reported by the licensing of hunters, and many were heard for and against it. The game wardens throughout the state pointed out the excellent results which have been obtained since the passage of the present law in putting a restriction on indiscriminate hunting and allowing of the enforcement of the game laws.

THE UNWRITTEN LAW

Who Attack Private or Public Men—Argument for Defense in Cooper Trial—A Burst of Eloquence.

Nashville, Tenn., March 9.—The unwritten law was extended today to cover editors who attack private or public men by General Meeks of counsel for the defense in the trial of Col. Duncan Cooper, Robin Cooper and John D. Sharp for the murder of former United States senator, Carmack. The innovation was sprung during General Meeks' speech to the jury. Previously he had expressly disclaimed making the unwritten law a defense.

Another promise made by the "insurgent" delegation was that they would not filibuster against legislation if they made their fight and lost. They argued that the fight could be brought to an end in one day. By these concessions the "insurgents" promised to give the proper time to renew it.

Tariff Bill Ready to Report First Day. Mr. Payne was with the president only a few minutes. He said he told Mr. Taft that the tariff bill was ready to report on the first day of the session, but that he could not prophesy what would happen if the present chaotic conditions in the house were to continue.

Several times during the conference Mrs. Taft sent word that she was ready to start for the concert and was finally compelled to leave without her husband. The president, however, reached the theater before the concert was over.

Thirty Lives Lost, Connecticut

100 Persons Hurt

FOURTEEN OF THE KNOWN DEAD ARE WHITE.

ARKANSAS TOWN WRECKED.

$1,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed by Torado — Throughfares Piled High With Wreckage.

Brinkley, Ark., March 9.—Thirty or more lives were snuffed out, sixty people were injured, fourteen seriously, and property estimated to be worth one million dollars was destroyed as a result of a tornado which wrecked this little town last night. Of the known dead, fourteen are white people, as follows:

The Known Dead. Isaac Reed, Mrs. Isaac Reed, Russell Reed, Raymond Reed, Porter Reed, J. T. Barrett, Harry Stovall, Jr., Mrs. Ethel Phillips, Mrs. Belle Darden, two children of Mrs. Darden, Charles Frenze, M. H. Hunt, unidentified man.

Work of Destruction Complete. The tornado hovered about the city only a few minutes, but its work of destruction was complete. The Roman Catholic church, directly in the path of the storm, alone escaped damage or destruction, and stands tonight a grim monument to the devastation. Main street and Cypress avenue, the two principal thoroughfares, are impassable from end to end, piled high with wreckage.

Every Business House in Ruins. Every business house is in ruins and there is hardly a home that has not at least suffered the loss of a roof or window. The Brinkley hotel, with 50 guests, the Brinkley, the Southern and Kelly's hotels all were destroyed, but without loss of life.

Relief Squads at Work. Relief squads have been at work all day caring for the dead and injured. The Rock Island and Cotton Belt railroads have placed cars at the disposal of the relief committees, and many persons are leaving Brinkley and seeking temporary refuge at nearby points. The dead were sent to Helena for interment.

Food and Clothing Needed. Governor Donaghy arrived from Little Rock this afternoon. He says food, clothing and shelter are the things most needed. Hundreds of persons are homeless. The Catholic church has been converted into a hospital, and here the doctors and nurses are caring for the injured.

Mass meetings will be held tomorrow in Memphis, Little Rock and other cities to raise funds and supplies for the sufferers.

DOG WHIP FOR BOSTON LAWYER.

G. A. Sweetser Lashed on Street by Mrs. McEllan.

Boston, March 9.—There was a brief tumult in State street just after the opening of the stock exchange today, when a woman, identified as Mrs. G. A. Sweetser, a lawyer, well known locally, with a stout dog whip, three heavy blows had fallen upon the head of Mr. Sweetser, who was stepping out of his office nearly opposite the stock exchange, before Mr. Sweetser was seen. The woman who witnessed the affair could not identify the woman.

The woman was Mrs. Jessie B. McEllan of Natick, who declared that Sweetser had persecuted her in connection with a breach of promise suit which she brought against a Boston business man, Mr. Sweetser being counsel for the respondent.

PROMISE OF CHEAPER MEAT.

J. Ogden Armour Says So in Interview at Atlanta.

Atlanta, Ga., March 9.—"Meat will be cheaper this summer," said J. Ogden Armour, president of the National Live Stock Association, in an interview at Atlanta on his way from Palm Beach to Chicago yesterday.

"Meat is high, too high, at present," he continued, "because of the increased cost of feeding stock just now. It follows that when corn is high meat is high. This summer we expect the price of corn to go down and meat will be cheaper."
